2.6.2

The learning outcomes are evaluated at four tires as below:

1. Internal assignment evaluation by faculty dealing with course.
2. Practical offered in university syllabus for every module. The conduct and completion of practical work and its submission.
3. Open book examination conducted as midterm test for MBA program and preliminary examination for BBA and BCA program.
4. University examination.

From this academic year institute has initiated an activity on the direction of IQAC. Every question paper carries course outcome and the respective questions in the question paper comes with number of course outcome it reflects. The answer books are evaluated by the faculty with respect to the course outcome and an Ms-Excel sheet has been prepared by every faculty for every course. The practice has been initiated and in later the actions on the attainment of outcome is also proposed.

KBPIMSR proud to share the PO's PSO's and CO's of MBA program to University.

The learning outcomes are monitored through the performance and results of students in internal and university examinations. An analysis is carried out at program level and conveyed to the CDC and sanstha management and feedback is provided in case of necessity.

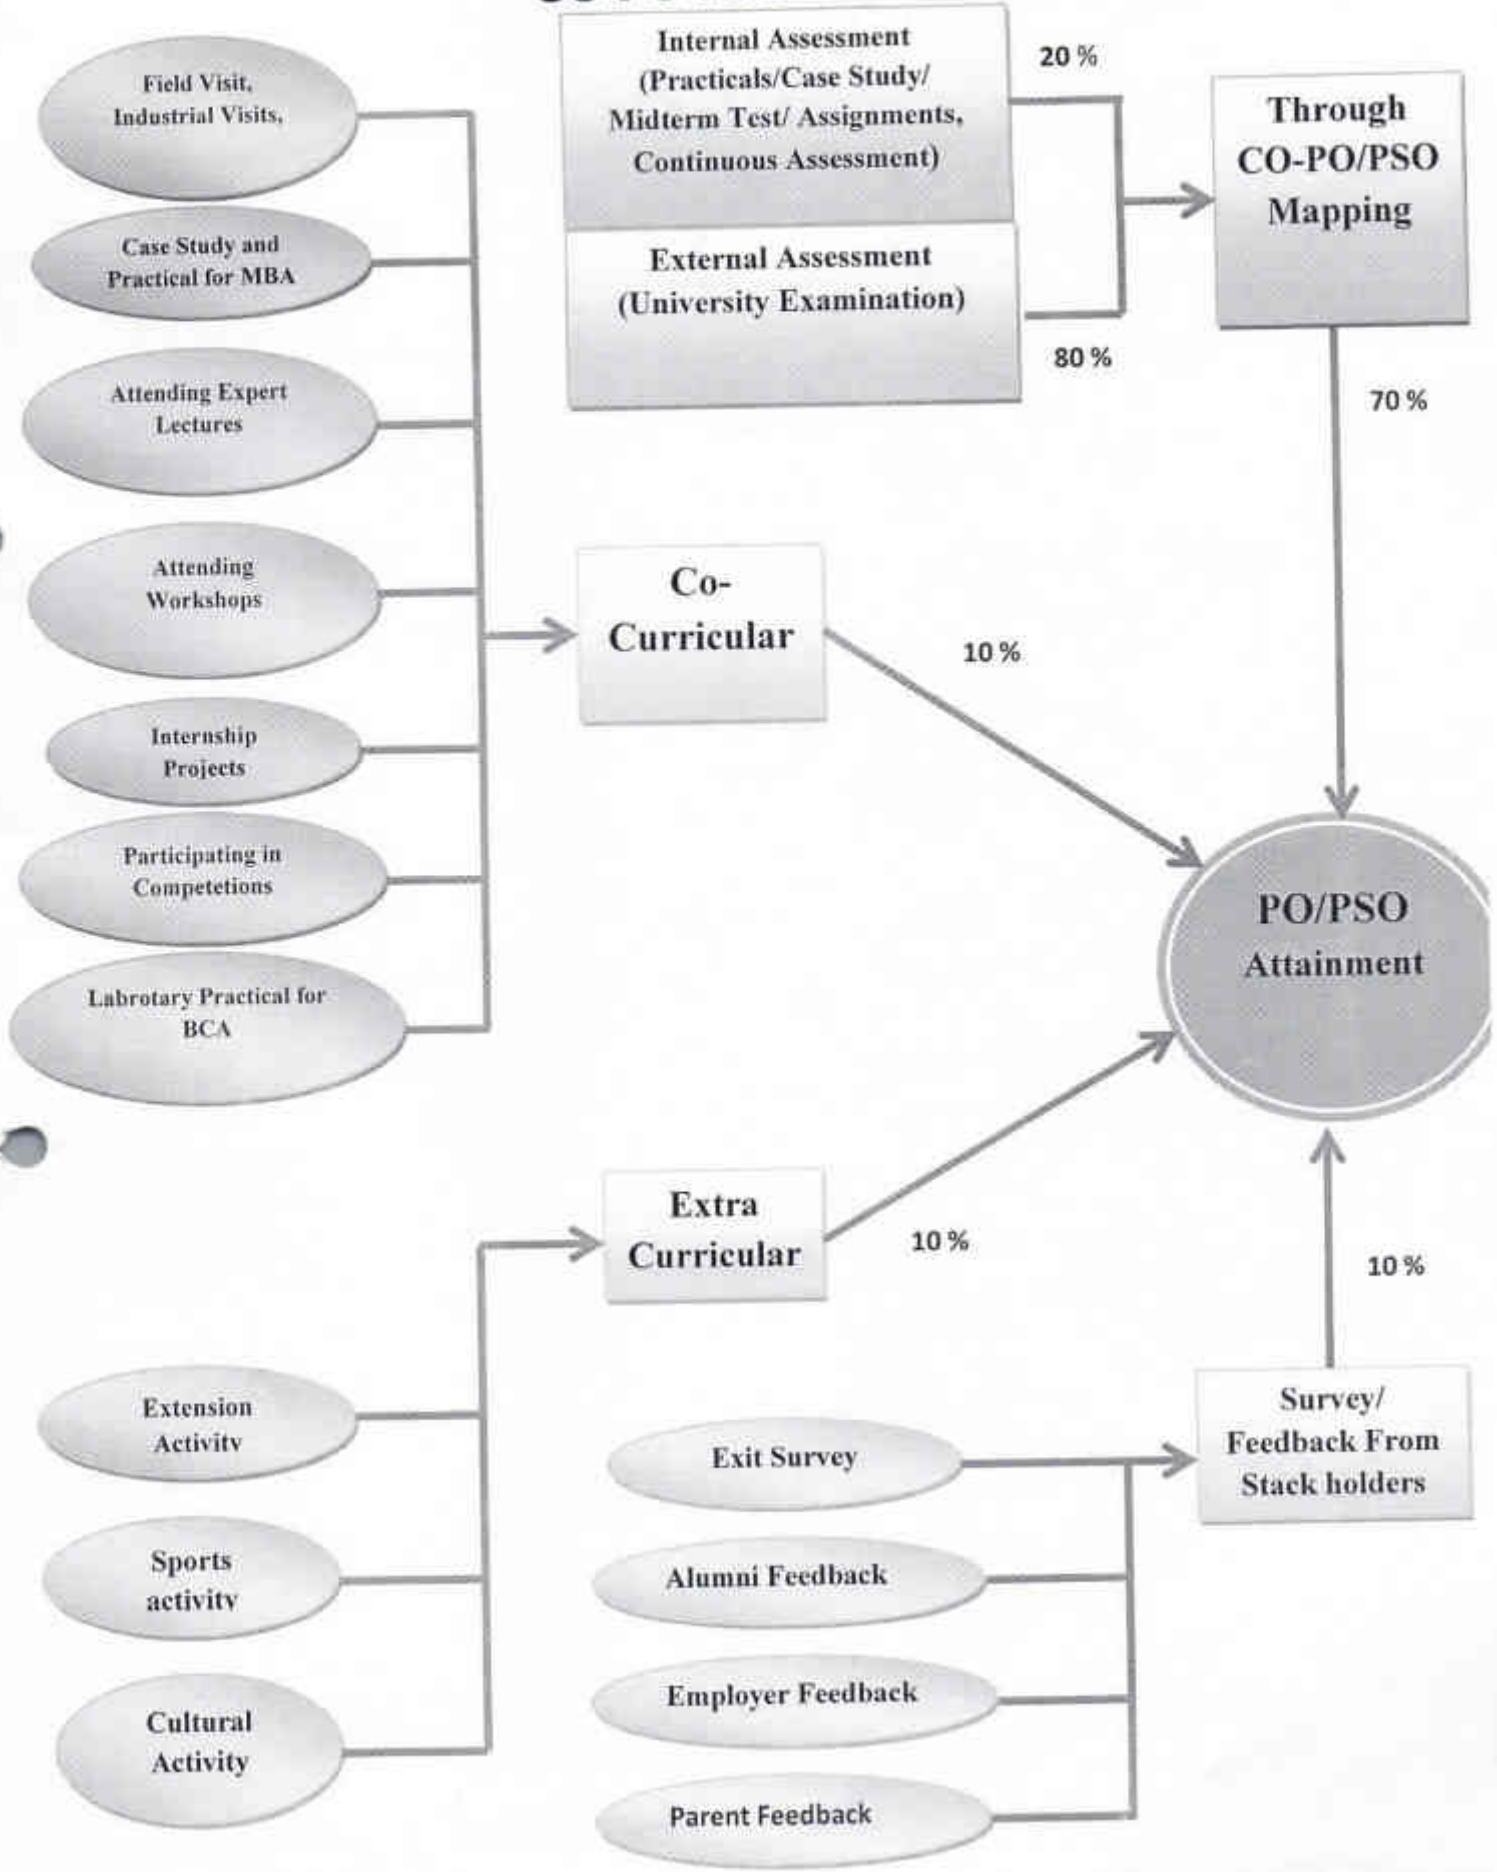

The curricular, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities are organized regularly. The success of the activity underlines attainment of outcomes. The institution uses formal and informal strategies to ascertain that the students achieve the learning outcomes through the course. The activities organized by different departments and support services also reflect the vision and mission of the institution. Therefore, specific objectives are set while planning and executing every activity.
