At KBPIMSR, Satara we have three tier career guidance and counseling process.

1. Workshops: Institute organize different workshop through which students are extended with the inputs on career planning and strategies. The need based workshops are also conducted to foster placement effect and improve the performance of students in the placement.
2. Personal counseling: for a few students personal counseling is needed owing to resolve the personal issues which has got the severe impact on their career. Some time the personal counseling of student is done along with the parents as well. The specially designed forms used for personal counseling on which the signature of student and counselor is taken.
3. Career counseling: The need based career counseling is done by individual faculty. The students approach faculty and faculty call on select students for career counseling and one to one career counseling is done by faculty. The specially designed forms used for personal counseling on which the signature of student and faculty counselor is taken.

Following table details the number of students participated in career counseling related workshops, personal counseling and also the career counseling done by faculty.
